ATLANTA AIRPORT AREA

A city unto itself

FROM THE PUBLISHERS

We welcome you to the Atlanta Airport Area! With all the amenities of any large city, the Atlanta Airport Area has the right to say that it is "A City Unto Itself." While there is a very large, busy city just north of us, for most of your needs, you can stay right here!

You want it? We have it - from world class hotels to gourmet restaurants. We've got great golf, even in these winter months, and both indoor and outdoor tennis. Major league football and basketball games are a short ride away on our MARTA trains.

The busiest airport in the US brings us many visitors, but the interstate highway system brings many people here also. Our visitors range from conventioners at our new "state of the art" Georgia International Convention Center to professional business travelers and families on vacation or attending reunions.

We welcome them all to a friendly, safe community where people love to share their own style of Southern hospitality.

We hope you'll use our Guide and visit Shannon Mall and Camp Creek MarketPlace to shop and visit Santa (in December). Shannon Mall even has ice skating!

Visit our restaurants. We've got it all - everything from BBQ and Southern cookin' to trendy restaurants and fast food.

Check out our Calendar of Events. There's plenty to do here in the Airport Area.

If you like our magazine, patronize our advertisers. Let them know that you appreciate the Guide directing you to their businesses - they're the ones who make this magazine possible!

We hope you have a great stay in "our town." Drop us an e-mail and let us know what you like most.

The Atlanta Falcons

A city unto itself

The Atlanta Airport Area covers most of the area South of I-20, West of I-75 and East of the Chattahoochee River and can truly be called "A City Unto Itself." The heart of this city is the Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport (HJIA), a world-class facility. It has the distinction of being "the World's Busiest Airport."

A world-class airport brings world-class accommodations, shopping and dining. But it doesn't stop there. As the Atlanta Airport grew, so did the cities in the area. The combined growth produced a wonderful blend of local attractions, recreation venues and cultural centers that are not usually associated with an airport. As many as 15 cities add their particular flavor to this unique area.

GETTING HERE

Whatever mode of transportation you're using, there's an easy way to get to the Atlanta Airport Area. The airport provides direct flights from most cities in the USA as well as most major international cities. The airport is conveniently located near the interstate highway system - I-85 and I-75 serve the traffic North and South while I-20 connects to cities to the East and West. On the South side of the airport, I-285 is the bypass that circles Atlanta.

EVERYTHING YOU DESIRE -

RIGHT HERE IN THE AIRPORT AREA

The Atlanta Airport Area has great golf and world-class tennis, as well as trails for hiking, jogging and cycling. You'll find award-winning gourmet restaurants, Southern home cookin' and great BBQ of all kinds. New, trendy restaurants and shops abound in every part of the area from the Main Streets of College Park, East Point and Hapeville to the new Camp Creek MarketPlace.

TAKE MARTA TO MAIN STREET & THE MARKETPLACE

With the new "Take MARTA to Main Street & the MarketPlace" program, it's easier than ever to visit the East Point-College Park Main Street or the newly opened Camp Creek MarketPlace with its department stores and shops of all kinds.

Also, this same MARTA connection makes it easy to hop on a train at the airport and zip off to the city to take in a Hawks game, enjoy Underground Atlanta or visit the World of Coke.

While the City of Atlanta is just 10 minutes away by rapid transit rail (MARTA), don't miss the local flavor of the Airport Area Cities - each with its own personality and style of Southern hospitality. Within a 20-minute, hassle-free drive, you'll find our Airport Area cities of College Park, East Point, Hapeville, Union City, Fairburn, Palmetto, Newnan, Tyrone, Peachtree City, Fayetteville, Riverdale, Jonesboro, Stockbridge, Morrow, Lake City and Forest Park.

STAYING HERE

You won't have a problem finding a place to stay in the Airport Area. With more than 60 hotels and motels, the area has 10,000 rooms to choose from, so you can get exactly what you want. There's a place for every taste and budget, from five-star hotels to privately owned and managed world-class Bed and Breakfasts. Visit our popular website, www.atlairportareaguide.com, for a comprehensive list of hotels and their amenities along with convenient links to our advertisers' properties.

MEETING HERE

Our Georgia International Convention Center (GICC) enjoyed a record-breaking opening year and is getting attention from national and regional meeting planners for its state-of-the-art technology and awesome ballroom — 40,000 square feet, the largest in the state of Georgia, which can accommodate up to 3,000 guests for a gourmet dinner. Get more details in this magazine or click on the GICC logo on our website.

VISITING HERE

There's so much to do when you're in the Atlanta Airport Area! You may have a hard time choosing where you want to go first. Be sure to check the Convention Section for a schedule of Events Open to the Public and our Calendar of Events for a comprehensive list of festivities. Our Dining and Entertainment Section has pointers on where to enjoy lunch, dinner and local live entertainment.

Our area has everything from formal concerts, chamber music and classical jazz in one of the most acoustically perfect auditoriums in the US — Spivey Hall — to great live jazz at Michon's in Hapeville and live blues at Liz & Lee's in East Point. Check the Calendar of Events for all of the holiday activities — you'll find everything from plays to special musical performances so get out and enjoy yourself.

You'll find every dining experience here, from a gourmet meal at Oscar's to lunch or dinner in an Ole' South setting at the Green Manor or the traditional menu of Cracker Barrel. You can always grab an order of "take-out wings" from D'bos Wings n' Things. You'll find every kind of food to delight your palette.

Don't miss the delightful ice cream of Atlanta's own Jake's with it newest store on Main Street in College Park. Ruby Tuesday's has just opened in the area on Virginia Avenue at Bobby Brown — they now have To Go Curbside at all three locations. These eateries and many more are found in our Dining Section or go to our website at www.atlairportareaguide.com where you can sort our list by category or city.

At the William H. Reynolds Memorial Nature Preserve in Morrow, three miles of paths loop through the 146 acres of forest, lakes, ponds and streams.

Cochran Mill Nature Center is just a few minutes from the airport. It has over 50 acres full of hiking trails and natural wonders.

Dunaway Gardens is beautiful. Just outside of Newnan, it's one of the South's largest natural rock and floral gardens.

We have a real Farmers Market in Forest Park, just a few minutes from the airport. The Atlanta State Farmers Market is a beehive of activity — fresh fruit and produce from all over the South is displayed in open-air stalls.

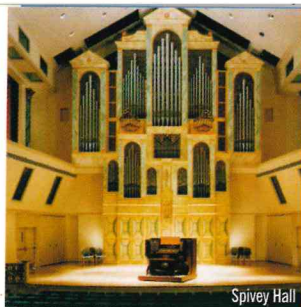

PLAYING HERE

If tennis is your game, then the Donald Young Tennis Plex about 10 minutes from most Airport Area hotels, is the place for you. This 24-court facility is open to the public. Another nearby tennis facility, the Burdett Tennis Center in College Park, offers eight lighted courts.

Golf is played year round in our area. Contact Wolf Creek and the Palmer Course at Starr's Mill for tee times.

TRULY "A CITY UNTO ITSELF"

You can find everything you need to have a great stay in the Atlanta Airport Area — world-class hotels, an abundance of meeting facilities, food for every taste and pocketbook, fun-filled attractions and plenty of places to visit. G

ATLANTA AIRPORT AREA MARKETING COALITION

When you have something good to offer, you want to share it. And the Atlanta Airport Area has a lot to share – great restaurants, attractions, convention and meeting facilities and, of course, a wide variety of accommodations.

To get the word out, a group of Atlanta Airport Area hotel general managers formed the Atlanta Airport Area Marketing Coalition. “The strength of the Atlanta Airport Marketing Coalition comes from combining the resources of the hotels sales and marketing staffs and budets with the resources of the Atlanta Convention & Visitors Bureau and the Georgia International Convention Center,” says John Weit, President, Atlanta Airport Area Marketing Coalition. “The result is a coordinated marketing plan for the Atlanta Airport Area.”

While they may be competitors, the member hotels of the Coalition work together to grow their businesses and offer the best accommodations possible to visitors of the Atlanta Airport Area. G

THE GICC OFFERS EVERYTHING NEEDED FOR SUCCESSFUL CONVENTIONS

Just a quarter mile from Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport, the new Georgia International Convention Center, GICC, offers meeting planners a huge variety of options.

The 150,000-square-foot Exhibit Hall, divisible into up to four separate halls, can fit up to 863 ten-by-ten-foot booths. Seventeen loading docks make move-ins and move-outs much easier, and there is drive-in access for each hall, with a ceiling height of 32 feet.

The GICC Ballroom, the largest in Georgia at 40,000 square feet, allows seated-dinner service for as many as 3,000 guests at once – last year the GICC hosted over 300,000 people in July alone. The executive chef and his experienced staff use the state-of-the-art Culinary Arts Center to create a high quality food service seldom experienced in large meetings. The largest food event last year was the Airtran 10th Anniversary party, which had 4,500 people in attendance.

HIGH LEVEL SECURITY AT ITS BEST

Flexible walls allow the facility to accommodate many-sized events and a sophisticated, electronic access-control system - CyberLock, by Videx Inc. This system, which uses programmable locks and keys and features electronic auditing capabilities, enhances security and costs less to maintain than traditional keyed locks.

The new GICC also tucks away a deluxe, high-level security Green Room for VIP guests, entertainers and dignitaries. It has already hosted such well known guests such as Attorney General John Ashcroft, singer Patti Labelle, and Art Linkletter, who have taken advantage of the Green Room's his-and-hers showers, Internet ports, top-of-the-line audiovisual elements or bar service.

QUIET BY DESIGN

While it was being designed, the GICC's proximity to the airport dictated much of the building's structure. It had to be able to accommodate low-flying planes and withstand and buffet the noise from hundreds of daily take-offs and landings.

Curves and circles are a pervasive theme, both inside and outside the building. The building had to have a lot of hard edges, primarily to make it soundproof, so a lot of circular forms were added to soften them.

PLEASING TO THE EYE

The entrance to the new GICC has seven tall windsail sculptures fabricated in the same way that airplane wings are made, and inside the building, metal shapes play into the signage and the commissioned artwork.

Inside the Ballroom circular patterns are repeated in the ceiling and in the swirling carpet underfoot and metal sculptures play off the materials of aviation.

The GICC features extensive artwork, including brightly colored paintings, wall sculptures, glass vases and a series of black and white photography. "We've created a world-class facility with many cutting-edge and state-of-the-art features, and that's aesthetically pleasing as well," Austin says.

STATE OF THE ART ELECTRONICS AND LIGHTING

Each meeting room has a Janus LCD system at the door, enabling custom displays and signage. The theatrical lighting system allows a company like Mary Kay Cosmetics the option of bathing each meeting room in its signature pink color. Lights automatically turn on when conference attendees open the door. The entire facility offers unblocked, secured Internet access through its high speed, fiber optic T-1 service and an in-house Intranet. G

Of course, the fine dining experience is important for business lunches and dinners as well as personal celebrations. The area's signature gourmet restaurant, Oscar's on Main Street in College Park, is on everybody's list of Top 10 Restaurants in Atlanta. You can't go wrong when you choose Oscar's for your special night out – and Oscar's plans to open again for lunches, so call ahead.

Kosmos is becoming a local favorite – it's filled with beautiful art, has a trendy menu and friendly staff, making it a winner for business gatherings and celebrations. Now it's open for lunch Monday - Friday and for dinner Tuesday - Saturday.

Another local indoor restaurant worthy of consideration is the Feed Store in College Park. It's one of the popular, new restaurants; the friendly bar gives you added incentive to stay around and visit after dinner.

Jake's Ice Cream and Muncherira is just across from the MARTA station. It's great for a quick delicious sandwich or salad. Of course, the homemade ice cream has no equal for many Atlantans.

Try Ruby Tuesday on Sullivan Road near the Sheraton Gateway Hotel. Their low-carb menu is a specialty and their "To Go! Curbside" service has proven to be a great hit. Now Ruby Tuesday has three locations near the Airport – on Sullivan Road across from the Sheraton, on Virginia Ave at Bobby Brown and on Camp Creek Pkwy at Camp Creek MarketPlace.

Return to Tara

Once upon a time...a handsome doctor presented the keys of this stately mansion to his bride. Green Manor has been fully restored and now is an elegant banquet & dining facility. Nestled in a beautiful garden setting, we feature exquisite Southern cuisine and serve lunch and Sunday buffet.

IN HAPEVILLE

BBQ of the smoked variety, including fish and meat, is the mainstay at Michon's in Hapeville. Michon's was an immediate success when it broke onto the scene last summer. The live jazz and great food were a tremendous hit with the local crowd.

623 Restaurant is a fun food place for lunch and a quiet intimate setting for dinner.

The Café At the Corner is a French bistro open for lunch only Monday to Friday. They serve authentic French specialties; don't miss it. Slice Pizza is right off of Main Street and has great pizza and beer.

IN EAST POINT'S CAMP CREEK MARKETPLACE

The new Cracker Barrel on the northeast corner of I-285 and Camp Creek Highway has just opened and is delighting visitors and locals alike.

Camp Creek Marketplace, the pavilion style shopping center in East Point located at I-285 and Camp Creek Parkway, opened in the summer of 2003. It has great restaurants including a Ruby Tuesday already mentioned, with fast and convenient "To Go! Curbside" service.

IN UNION CITY AND FAIRBURN

The Green Manor in nearby Union City serves up delicious Southern fried chicken and country-cooked veggies in a real authentic Southern plantation home. You'll be delighted with the Southern hospitality as well as the real Southern food.

Casablanca Café in Fairburn is a favorite of the locals. The food is great and so is the service. It's a good choice for dinner before going to the theater. Southside Theater is right around the corner.

SOUTHEAST AIRPORT AREA

Want to take out a box of wings? Then go to D'bo's Buffalo Wings & Things on the south side of the Airport, on State Hwy 85 (not interstate 85), just south of I-285.

COLLEGE PARK MAIN STREET

Established in 1896, along the lines of the Atlanta-Westpoint Railway, the center of this historic City is it's historic Main Street District.

As Georgia's fourth largest National Register District, College Park is using historic preservation as an economic development tool to revitalize its turn of the century downtown. Designated a Georgia Main Street City in 1999, this community of 20,000 residents is once again embracing downtown as the cultural and commercial center of the city.

Through assistance from the College Park Development Office, new specialty and transitional businesses are replacing once vacant storefronts. Successful business recruitment efforts have resulted in over 17 new businesses ranging from Oscar's, a white table cloth restaurant voted one of the Nations top 100 by Gourmet Magazine, to Rusch Home and Metro Sports. Lunch on Main is a southern favorite for classic home cooking and is joined by its retro neighbors the Brake Pad and Kosmo's. The Feed Store brings fine dining to a former dry goods store with a nostalgic nod to the past. A fixture since 1973, College Park Shoes offers designer shoes for men, women & children.

From elegant upscale dining and classic southern fare to antiques and decorative items for the home... visit historic Main Street and return to classic College Park.

EAST POINT MAIN STREET

Live, Shop, Dine, Enjoy!

Like many cities in the 1800's that sprung up around the American Railroad, East Point was no different. Being the eastern most terminus of the Atlanta West Point railroad the 'East' township was affectionately called 'East Point'. The city has seen its share of prosperity and devastation, but with a resiliency, it has survived economic hardships and is enjoying a tremendous economic development renaissance. With more development and over a million dollars in streetscape improvements on the way, our downtown district features restaurants, Blues & Jazz, Retail, six banks, government and professional offices. A short trip by MARTA. Ride the Northbound line from the Airport or the Southbound line from Atlanta, and you're here! Visit Historic East Point!

HAPEVILLE MAIN STREET

Come visit historic downtown Hapeville! Since spring of 1999 the Mayor and Council have been dedicated to redeveloping Hapeville's downtown. In 2003 the City was the only municipality in Georgia to receive the coveted Main Street designation. Since designation the City has hired a full time Main Street Manager. The City also established a new Department of Economic Development and hired a Director to reside over that department. The City is currently undergoing a "Visioning" process to see where they want to be in the next 5, 10, 15 and 20 years. From that Vision the Economic Development department will work to implement strategies to achieve the goal of reinventing Hapeville into the all-American small town with urban flare. The Department is addressing how to strengthen every facet of quality of life within the City- commercial, professional, education, arts, culture, greenspace, transportation and government.

Hapeville is one of south Atlanta's best-located cities, with its centralized proximity to Hartsfield International Airport and downtown Atlanta, via easy access to I-75 and I-85. Watch as the new housing developments, mixed-use and in-fill construction bloom throughout 2005.

Hapeville is South Fulton County's smallest municipality in land mass and maintains a small town charm. Home to the original Chick-fil-A (Truett Cathy's Dwarf House), Delta Airline Headquarters, Ford Motor Company, and Wachovia Corporate Headquarters, among many other airport related industries. Our downtown is home to long time family owned businesses as well as a variety of restaurants.

For more information, call Hapeville City Hall: 404-669-2100.

SHOPPING AT THE AIRPORT

You don't have to leave the airport for some great shopping. Throughout the Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport, you can find a large variety of shops with reasonably priced merchandise. Everything from leather goods and books to cosmetics and gifts can be found right in the airport terminal. Check out the Shops of Hartsfield ad in the HJAJA Section.

VISIT OUR MAIN STREETS

Take time to visit our Main Streets. Not a mere PR term, the Main Streets are part of a Revitalization Program with support by the State of Georgia for cities that meet the necessary criteria. In our immediate Airport Area, we have three cities that have achieved "Main Street" designation. Hapeville led the way, attracting trendy new restaurants and shops. The idea quickly spread to East Point and College Park. Check out our handy Main Street Maps showing all three cities and their shops with easy to read, color-coded locator numbers.

The Main Streets offer a wonderful change of pace for shoppers in safe, revitalized neighborhoods. Take a look at our Main Street Maps in the Shopping Section for listings of restaurants, shops and service organizations. It's easy to get to Main Street from your hotel. Just "Take MARTA to Main Street" for only $1.75. Check the MARTA Section for details. Or you can take a cab.

GO ANTIQUE HUNTING

Don't miss the opportunity to do some serious antique hunting while you're here. Start at East Point Antiques, across from the MARTA station on White Way and work your way down Georgia Hwy 29 to Fairburn. There are antique shops of every kind along the way. If you'd like a personally guided tour, call Francine Sims at 404-403-2516. G

HARTSFIELD-JACKSON DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM TAKES ATL TO NEW HEIGHTS

Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport provides air travelers a gateway to the globe and it is expanding to offer more.

Five years ago, airport planners and the aviation management team established the Hartsfield-Jackson Development Program (HJDP), comprised of several major projects including: the fifth runway, the Maynard H. Jackson Jr. International Terminal, the Consolidated Rental Car Agency Complex, the Central Passenger Terminal Complex and a new Federal Aviation Administration Air Traffic Control Tower.

Slated for completion in 2012, each element of the HJDP will facilitate a new era of demand for air transportation as annual passenger activity levels are expected to increase to more than 115 million by 2015.

The HJDP, estimated to cost more than $6 billion, will create thousands of jobs and increase economic opportunity in Atlanta and the southeastern region. It's forecast that in 10 years, Hartsfield-Jackson will produce more than 400,000 jobs for workers at the Airport and in the visitor industry, and have an annual business revenue impact to the region of more than $32 billion.

"I believe in preparation; planning ahead is a major key to success. That's why we're focused on our development program at Hartsfield-Jackson," says Aviation General Manager Ben DeCosta. "Increasing our capacity now will enable us to continue to serve our customers with excellence in the future." G

FAST, INEXPENSIVE, AND SAFE TRANSIT

The Metropolitan Atlanta Rapid Transit Authority, or MARTA, provides a quick, affordable way to travel throughout the Atlanta Airport Area and visit the many attractions in Atlanta. By rail, downtown Atlanta's main station, Five Points Station, is only seven stops (about 16 minutes) away from the South Line's Airport Station.

MARTA has a rail station inside Atlanta Hartsfield International Airport, located near the baggage claim area. This service offers a quick and inexpensive way to get to hotels, restaurants and attractions.

The rail system operates from approximately 5am to 1am Monday through Friday and from 5am to 12:30am on weekends and holidays. Times vary on individual bus routes. In general, buses run from 5am to 1:30am Monday through Friday and from 5:30am to 12:30am weekends and holidays.

Transfers are free between MARTA buses and trains. If you need to transfer between a bus and train, please remember to obtain a free transfer for the bus at the fare gate when entering a rail station. If you need to obtain a transfer to the train, then request one at the beginning of your trip when boarding the bus. You only need to pay once for a one way trip.

Another option for visitors from out-of-town is MARTA's Visitors

Pass. At an average cost of about $10, the Visitors Pass, which entitles the bearer to unlimited system-wide traveling, quickly pays for itself. Check out the MARTA website at www.itsmarta.com or call 404-848-5501 for more information about the Visitors Pass

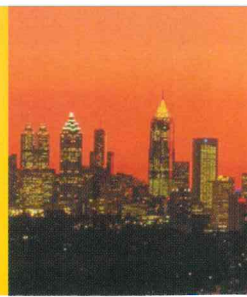

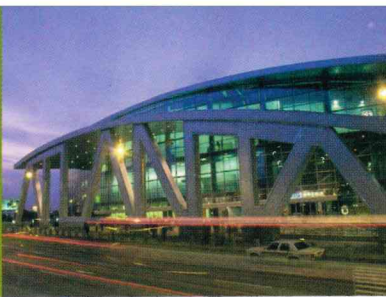

Everything from the Alliance Theatre to Zoo Atlanta has easy access through MARTA. Besides the rail service, bus routes and express shuttles will take you quickly everywhere you want to go, including Turner Field, HiFi Buys Amphitheater and Six Flags.

For more detailed information, visit MARTA's website, www.itsmarta.com. G

PLENTY TO DO IN ATLANTA

Atlanta shares the tradition of all great cities by offering a wide variety of culture and entertainment. From professional sports to historical landmarks, world-class arts to neighborhood museums, it's all here.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

Family fun is available at Six Flags over Georgia, just to the west of the Atlanta Airport Area. At Stone Mountain, you can climb the giant granite outcropping during the day and enjoy the laser show spectacular at night.

Lions and tigers and bears...and pandas. Zoo Atlanta delights the entire family with animals from around the world housed in environments that simulate their natural homes.

Georgia has three scenic highways and one of them is located in the Atlanta Airport Area. The South Fulton Scenic Byway, a 29-mile loop, highlights the rural character of the surrounding area. Take an hour to drive through the rolling hills, forested ridges and serene pastures.

Stop in at Sci-Trek, the museum with hands-on exhibits. You'll find yourself having as much fun as the kids while you learn scientific concepts. At the Fernbank Museum of Natural History, you can see an Argentinosaurus skeleton, discover ancient and modern Georgia or witness marvels on in the IMAX Theatre.

Other must-sees in Atlanta include the CNN Center, Centennial Olympic Park, Underground Atlanta and the World of Coca-Cola.

PLAY BALL!

Even when the Braves aren't playing at Turner Field, you can get your dose of baseball by touring the Ivan Allen Jr. Braves Museum & Hall of Fame, on the northwest side of the Turner Field.

The Georgia Dome, adjacent to Centennial Olympic Park, is home to Atlanta Falcons Football.

LISTEN TO THE MUSIC

HiFi Buys Amphitheatre, hosts some of the biggest acts in music. Big-name concerts are also held at Philips Arena, home to Atlanta Hawks Basketball and Thrashers Hockey teams.

A wide variety of musical venues are found throughout the city, including the Variety Playhouse, Masquerade and Tabernacle.

THEATRE & ARTS

One of Atlanta's favorites is Agatha's, a comedy murder mystery dinner theater that encourages audience member to participate..

If you want Shakespeare with your meal, we've got it! The New American Shakespeare Tavern feeds you while you enjoy the Tavern's Shakespearean plays.

You'll find world-class exhibits and performances at The Woodruff Arts Center in downtown Atlanta. Many of Atlanta's finest arts organizations, including the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, High Art Museum, Alliance Theatre Company and 14th Street Playhouse, are housed here.

Contemporary theater is throughout Atlanta; Dad's Garage, Horizon Theater Company and Seven Stages Theater are just a few of the choices.

At the Center for Puppetry Arts, children and adults delight in the highly creative shows, workshops and puppetry museum.

UNIQUELY ATLANTA

The Fabulous Fox Theatre is fabulous! This opulent theater of yesteryear has been lovingly restored and is as much an attraction as the ballets, operas and Broadway productions that it hosts. The Atlanta Preservation Center offers walking tours to many of Atlanta's outstanding structures and neighborhoods including the Fox Theatre, Druid Hills and Inman Park.

One of the greatest legacies that visitors to Atlanta can experience is that of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr and his dedication to justice, equality and peace.

After your visit to Zoo Atlanta, stop in the nearby Atlanta Cyclorama and Civil War Museum, where history comes alive.

Whether you're alone or with your family, you'll have fun exploring the many facets of Atlanta. G
